I want to charge a separate tax on Shipping, how do I do this?

Elenor A. - 2021-12-08 - Shipping and Taxes

Using "Apply the tax to shipping" option when you need to setup a separate tax that only applies to the shipping cost

- Open your shop in ShopFactory
- Click Central dropdown button -> Taxes
- Untick "Apply tax on products to Shipping and Handling Charges" checkbox
- Click the + button to Add a new Shipping Tax.

Apply tax on products to shipping and handling charges

1. To add a separate shipping tax, this checkbox must be disabled/unticked.

2. Click the + button to add a new tax

Note: If you select "Other region" to the option "Where does the tax apply?" - in the next window you must choose the region where the tax applies.

- Then Click the Next button.
- At the Final Tax setup dialog, you can untick "Prices include this tax" if tax will be added on top of the shipping cost
- You can also untick "Allow customers with Sales Tax exemptions to remove sales tax from charges" if you don't want the tax exemption to be available in your shop.
- Click the Finish button.

Taxes

Here you set up the taxes you must collect from your customers.
 A tax consists of a Name, a tax rate and a region in which it applies. We also need to know if a tax is included in the price of a product or not.

Available: These are the taxes you can either automatically or manually assign to a product. If no taxes are listed,
